No. 9149-58—CIR. 204, DATED 20TH FEBRUARY 1890.

ORDER THEREON.—In the Proceedings above quoted, the proposal made by the Deputy Commissioner of the Shimoga District to disburse the Potgi to the Patels and Shanbhogs in the beginning of each Calendar year was sanctioned, and the Deputy Commissioners of other Districts were requested to report whether this arrangement would be considered convenient by their Shanbhogs and Patels.

2. The replies now received show that all the Deputy Commissioners of Districts, except the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur, who has promised a further report, are unanimously in favor of a yearly payment.

3. The Government accordingly direct that the remuneration of Patels and Shanbhogs throughout the Province be paid annually either at jamabandi time or soon after the close of the Financial year for which the Potgi is due. The Comptroller is requested to issue the necessary orders in modification of his Circular No. 1706 of the 11th July 1889.
